

Our People

Doug Tupper, M.Eng.

Environmental consultant

Water resource management. Environmental policy development & program delivery

Expertise:

Doug's executive experience with Alberta Environment capped a career spanning involvement in water management, engineering aspects of both hydroelectric and nuclear power installations and responsibility for program planning, delivery and compliance.

Resume:

- |                |   |
|----------------|---|
| 2005 – 2010    | Executive Director, Edmonton Police Commission  |
| 2002 – Present | President, Doug Tupper Consulting Ltd.Expert advice on environmental policy and management  |
| 1998 – 2002    | Assistant Deputy Minister, Alberta EnvironmentProgram development and regional delivery of department services.   |
| 1990 – 1998    | Director, Water Management, Alberta EnvironmentOperation of water management works, River Basin management studies, upgrades to the hydrology and flow forecasting unit and a variety of other tasks. |
| 1974 – 1990    | Alberta Environment Branch Head for Regional Services and Project Manager(e.g., Planning, Water Resource Management)  |

Earlier, Doug worked on the construction of the Pickering Nuclear Power Station in Ontario, was a Design Engineer in the Tunnels and Aqueduct Branch of Australia's Snowy Mountains Hydro Electric Authority and a Project Engineer working on the Canadian Plumbing Code, and broad environmental consulting for Charles A Campbell and Associates in Nova Scotia.

Community Service:

Edmonton Public School Board, Former trustee and Chair
Edmonton Board of Health, Former member
Alberta Health Services Utilization and Outcomes Commission, Commissioner

Education/Professional Certificatation/Memberships:

M Eng, Water Resource Engineering, Technical University of Nova Scotia (Dalhousie)
B Eng, Civil Engineering, Technical University of Nova Scotia (Dalhousie)
Former Member, Association of Prof. Engineers, Geologists, & Geophysicists of Alberta
Former member, Institute of Public Administration of Canada